There's no use talking, you cannot lose that man Charles Curtis, He is by far the best politician in the Republican party. He is going over the state telling people that it is a shame that there were any votes date for the Democratic nomination young gentleman and his better-half, the president in using the army and Congressional District, subject to the west. No reward offered as they will United States against Huerta. It's navy to enforce the demands of the action of the August primary, not often that we can agree with Mr. Curtis, but in this instance we are with him. Don't you remember when McKinley called on the congress to back him in our demands against Spain, that every Democrat voted in favor of sustaining the president. Not from the Seventh congressional disa Democrat thought of anything but sustaining the honor and giory of the flig. They had no time for politics, the primary election to be held on Not so with thirty-eight Republicans in the lower house. They gave aid and quibbling at a time when Huerta was glorying in his insult to our fing. They were giving him the opportunity to point to the fact that our commander-in-chief did not have the support of his own government. They will be compeled to face the people for their conduct.
